

Promoting Policy Alignment to Combat Systemic Racism

You could join us for our NEXT Community of Practice! A few seats have opened up for our event next week. Space is still limited so if you want to attend, register as soon as possible.

Chicago Jobs Council (CJC) is hosting an in-person policy Community of Practice convening on May 22nd, 2024. The event will feature conversations on how to develop and advocate for anti-racist policy design and implementation. This session will focus on promoting policy alignment to combat systemic racism in workforce development.

We will engage in a series of discussions and workshops aimed at developing strategies and methods to advocate for anti-racist policies that promote equity and inclusion. Participants will have the opportunity to openly discuss the challenges and difficulties they face in this critical work. Sharing best practices will
